Section 2.0 APPOINTMENT

The Ordinance authorizes the Mayor, with the approval of the City Council, to appoint Commission members.

Section 3.0 MEMBERS

Each successor so appointed shall serve for the remaining term for which he/she was appointed. Unreasonable absences from Commission meetings may cause the term of a Commission member to expire pursuant to Article IV, Section 4.0 of these bylaws, and a successor Commission member shall be appointed pursuant to the Ordinance.

ARTICLE IV Meetings

Section 1.0 ILLINOIS OPEN MEETINGS ACT

The Commission is a public body, and all meetings shall be held by the Illinois Open Meetings Act, 5 ILCS 120/1 et seq. (the “Illinois Open Meetings Act”). All meetings shall be held at specified times and places that are convenient and open to the public.

Section 2.0 MEETINGS

Regular meetings of the Commission shall be held regularly at such time and place as the Chair shall designate. Under these bylaws, a “regular basis” shall mean the frequency reasonably necessary to fulfill the duties and obligations of the Commission. Reconvened meetings shall be determined at a regular meeting by a simple majority of a meeting quorum. Emergency meetings may be convened at the call of the Chair. Special meetings shall be convened at the call of the Chair or upon written request of at least three Commissioners duly appointed and serving.

Section 2.0.1 PUBLIC INPUT

Any person or group wishing to address an item on the agenda shall be limited to a total of 15 minutes at the beginning of each regular meeting where all input from the public shall be heard at such time. All those wishing to speak during the public input portion of the meeting must complete an information form including name, address, phone number, stake in the SSA, and topic to be addressed and present the completed form to the secretary before the start of the meeting. Public input will proceed according to Robert’s Rules of Order, most importantly.

- No attendee may speak twice until everyone else wishing to speak has spoken once.
- Remarks must be courteous in language and department, avoiding all personal remarks and never alluding to others by name or to motives.
- One person may speak at a time, if not the presiding officer can call them out of order.

All reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate the public. To assure an orderly and timely meeting the Chair may limit time allotment to five minutes or less per person and the person addressing the Commission may only address the Chair.

Section 2.0.2 ELIGIBILITY FOR PUBLIC GRIEVANCE

Any person or group wishing to initiate a grievance regarding the current agenda may do so in writing by tendering such a grievance to the Commission. Response to the written grievance shall take no more than 45 days.

Section 3.0 NOTICE

Section 3.0.1 REGULAR MEETINGS

The Illinois Open Meetings Act requires the Commission to give public notice of the regular meeting schedule at the beginning of each calendar year listing the regular dates, times, and places of such meetings. If a change is made in regular meeting dates, at least 10 days notice of such change shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the Commission functions. An agenda for each regular meeting shall be posted at the principal office of the Commission (Service Provider’s office) and at the location where the meeting is to be held at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting.

Notices sent specifically to Commissioners and other parties requesting notice of regularly scheduled meetings may be mailed via U.S. mail, electronic mail, or telephone with 10 days' notice preferred.

Section 3.0.2 RECONVENED MEETINGS

The Illinois Open Meetings Act states the requirement of public notice of reconvened meetings does not apply to any case where the meeting was open to the public and (1) it is to be reconvened within 24 hours, or (2) an announcement of the time and place of the reconvened meeting was made at the original meeting and there is no change in the agenda.

Section 3.0.3 EMERGENCY MEETINGS

The Illinois Open Meetings Act states that notice of an emergency meeting shall be given as soon as practicable.

Section 3.0.3 SPECIAL MEETINGS

The Illinois Open Meetings Act states that public notice of any special meeting except a meeting held in the event of a bona fide emergency, or of any rescheduled regular meeting, or of any reconvened meeting, shall be given at least 48 hours before such meeting, which notice shall also include the agenda for the special, rescheduled, or reconvened meeting, but the validity of any action taken by the public body which is germane to a subject on the agenda shall not be affected by other errors or omissions in the agenda.

Section 4.0 ATTENDANCE

A Commissioner shall be present, either physically or via conference call, for most of a meeting to be considered in attendance. A Commissioner duly appointed and serving absent for three consecutive regular meetings shall be automatically deemed to have resigned from the Commission. A Commissioner may additionally be asked to resign by the Chair if their absenteeism from regular meetings is causing a deleterious effect on conducting Commission business.

Section 5.0 QUORUM

A simple majority of the Commissioners duly appointed and serving shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Commission, except as otherwise specifically provided in these bylaws. The commission may increase the quorum ratio for special meetings as they deem necessary.

Section 6.0 VOTING

A simple majority of a meeting quorum shall adopt a motion unless otherwise provided for in Robert's Rules of Order or in these bylaws. All Commission members duly appointed, serving and in attendance at any meeting may vote on any matter being considered by the Commission.

ARTICLE V COMMITTEES

The Commission may through resolution designate any number of special committees they deem necessary. The motion to create a committee may also designate Commissioners to serve on the committee. The Commission may determine terms and duties of committees. The committees may meet under their own terms provided they comply with the Illinois Open Meetings Act.

ARTICLE VI Books & Records

The Commission shall keep minutes of its meetings and archives of all handouts provided at Commission meetings as required by the Illinois Open Meetings Act. Documents distributed at Commission meetings may be subject to request through the Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq.

ARTICLE VII
Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the bylaws of the Commission, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, should be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a member at a meeting of the Commission should constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where such person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENT

The sections of these bylaws that are not ordained by law may be amended by a three-fourths vote of Commissioners duly appointed and serving at any regularly scheduled Commission meeting provided this action is noted on the agenda and meeting notice.

ARTICLE IX
MANNER OF ACTING

Where not otherwise provided, Robert's Rules of Order, most recent edition, shall be the standard of parliamentary authority of all meetings of the Commission.

ARTICLE X
Authority of the City of Chicago AND STATE OF ILLINOIS

Any provision of these bylaws that shall conflict with any ordinances of the City of Chicago or with Illinois Special Service Area Tax Law (35 ILCS 200/27-5 through 27-95) shall be null and void.
